

IT TAKES TWO

You know you've arrived in Latin America when you discover that not only do all the men dance, but they all dance hip-shakingly well! Culture shock? We think so...

FROM THE BREATHTAKING snaggle-toothed glaciers of Patagonia to the steaming Amazon rainforest and the high-altitude world of the Incas, Latin America is so amazingly diverse and packed full of adventure.

Visitors to the region can climb the barren heights of the snow-capped Andes, trek the Inca Trail to the iconic remains of Machu Picchu, be gripped by jungle fever in the Amazon, enjoy an other-worldly experience in Chile's Atacama desert and let loose to the hedonism of Brazil's Carnival, complete with rump-shaking carnival queens wearing gravity-defying headdresses (and little else).

And with every adventure there's an accompanying soundtrack, from modern Brazilian bossa nova and Columbian salsa to traditional Argentine tango and the haunting panpipes of the Andean páramo (grasslands). Add to the mix the outgoing, kind and open nature of the Latin people, and you have one hell of a traveller's paradise.

LATIN AMERICA | HOT PICKS

DANCING TO A LATIN BEAT

Tempt your customers to become committed tangophiles in Buenos Aires, Argentina, with the four-day Learn to Tango package, from £247pp. Locked in embrace, sashaying around the floor to seductive Latin rhythms? Sounds good to us...

INCA GLORY TRAIL

If you've heard of any trek in Peru, you'll have heard of the world-famous Inca Trail to Machu Picchu. But why stop with hiking? With the six-day The Sacred Valley & Machu Picchu Adventure, starting from £835pp, customers can try their hand at horse riding or mountain biking, too.

NATURE NOTES

A visit to the Galapagos Islands is, very literally, the wildlife experience of a lifetime. For a mind-blowing lesson in natural history, and to truly experience the islands' marvels, the seven-day Galapagos

Islands Cruise – aboard M/V Santa Cruz – is just the ticket, from £1,561pp.

BOOK WITH AWARD-WINNING TRAVEL 4, voted Best Tour Operator to Central and South America, and lock the Latin experience into your customer's travel agenda...

TO BOOK, CALL
0800 0224 304
TRAVEL 4